These phenomenal feats have only been possible due to all your support - our students, our educators and our parents. Thank you for your belief in us.

What makes these results even more special is that our kids here are not only breaking academic records, but also are on a daily basis involved in sports community service, MUN's debates, business plan/investment completions and more. And in these fields too they are attaining insurmountable heights. They've already become Guinness world record holders, their startups are creating ripples across India and the world, For JPites the age old saying age of being jack of all trades master of none is not applicable, ladies and gentlemen because JPites are master of all fields.

Thank you for always believing in us. Your belief is the fuel that rocket us further. I now invite student council heads to give the school academic report.
